

The Arapahoe Pinnacle has been named a finalist in Best Independent Online Student Publication category in this year's Region 9 Mark of Excellence Awards by the Society of Professional Journalists. Bryden Smith's feature article about public art in Parker was also named as a finalist for Best Online Feature Writing in the same contest. He has since transferred to Metro. Read the story here:

<https://arapahoenews.com/15473/entertainment/public-art-prospers-in-parker/>